

AvePoint Launches DocAve on Salesforce.com's ChatterExchange, Delivering Seamless Integration of Microsoft SharePoint Data with Salesforce Chatter

DocAve now available from the ChatterExchange on AppExchange 2, the world's most popular marketplace for business apps

With DocAve, salesforce.com customers can now "bring SharePoint content to life" by surfacing it in Chatter for dynamic collaboration and enterprise-wide, real-time delivery

CLOUDFORCE 2010 – SAN JOSE, Calif. – June 22, 2010 – AvePoint today announced it has launched DocAve for Salesforce Chatter on salesforce.com's ChatterExchange. DocAve empowers organizations to fully synchronize and surface SharePoint content via Salesforce Chatter for dynamic collaboration and enterprise-wide delivery. DocAve is the world's only Salesforce Chatter-SharePoint integration solution available on AppExchange 2, and is one of the first applications to leverage the social components of Chatter available in the Force.com platform. DocAve can be found on the ChatterExchange, a brand new category for social enterprise apps that is now part of AppExchange 2.

"We are very excited to offer DocAve for Salesforce Chatter on the new ChatterExchange", said David Waugh, AvePoint's Vice President of Corporate Development. "Chatter is poised to revolutionize how knowledge workers share information and collaborate, so it is critical for Chatter to surface all of an organization's digital assets. With DocAve, content authored and stewarded within Microsoft SharePoint can be seamlessly propagated to Salesforce Content, where it can truly be 'brought to life' and collaborated upon in real-time by Chatter users."

Bringing SharePoint Data to Life in Salesforce Chatter

DocAve for Salesforce Chatter is a revolutionary software solution for the automated integration of salesforce.com and SharePoint content. Using DocAve, organizations can automate the lossless synchronization of content from SharePoint repositories to Salesforce Content, where it can be surfaced via Chatter's real-time collaboration features, including news feeds, status notification, and various content sharing tools.

"DocAve for Salesforce Chatter is a welcome addition to ChatterExchange. It delivers incredible value for companies looking to leverage Chatter with current SharePoint investments," said Kendall Collins, chief marketing officer at salesforce.com. "We look to AvePoint for their expertise in this area and to help users seamlessly upgrade to the benefits of Chatter."
