

AvePoint the Gold Sponsor of Microsoft's Indonesia Wave 14 Launch 2010

AvePoint's support of the event underscores the company's commitment to growing and supporting the Australasian SharePoint community

Republic of Singapore — May 22, 2010 — AvePoint, the leading provider of infrastructure management software solutions for Microsoft SharePoint, today announced that it was the Gold Sponsor of the Business Productivity and Collaboration track at the Microsoft Indonesia Wave 14 Launch in Jakarta, Indonesia, furthering its commitment to helping organizations in Australasia take full advantage of SharePoint for success. The event was organized by InfoKomputer, a leading IT magazine in Indonesia, and welcomed 600 attendees from numerous industry verticals.

"We are very excited to be the Gold Sponsor at Microsoft Indonesia Wave 14 Launch 2010", said Dino Cavestany, AvePoint's Singapore Manager. "Throughout Australasia, organizations are turning to Microsoft SharePoint Products and Technologies to organize, optimize, and streamline their business processes, and we're committed to ensuring these organizations have the tools and expertise they require to fully protect, efficiently manage, totally optimize, and fully integrate SharePoint for success."

In addition to AvePoint's sponsorship of the event, Dr. Tianyi (TJ) Jiang, AvePoint's Co-founder and Co-Chief Executive Officer, presented a session for the Business Productivity and Collaboration track of the Microsoft Indonesia Wave 14 Launch, entitled: "Delivering Intelligent Information Management and Collaboration in SharePoint 2010". During the session, Dr. Jiang discussed strategies and tools available to organizations seeking to bolster their data protection, administration, reporting, replication, storage management, and compliance capabilities in order to unlock the full potential of the SharePoint platform.
