London, United Kingdom — May 29, 2010 — AvePoint, the leading provider of infrastructure management software solutions for Microsoft SharePoint, today announced that it has become a sponsor of www.sharepointcommunity.it, the recently formed online SharePoint Community and User Group in Italy. Established by companies including AvePoint partner and premiere SharePoint consulting house, Green Team, www.sharepointcommunity.it is Italy's most comprehensive source for SharePoint related news, events, and best practices.

"We are excited to lend our full support to the new Italian SharePoint Community group", said Ron Miles, AvePoint's Director of EMEA Sales. "As more organisations throughout Italy turn to Microsoft SharePoint Products and Technologies to build mission-critical business platforms, there is a vital need for expert, reliable guidance and insight into how to deploy and manage SharePoint. With sharepointcommunity.it, Italian organisations now have a single resource to get the information and news they need to succeed, and AvePoint is proud to be an active supporter."
