

AvePoint Named 2011 Editors' Best Award Winner by Windows IT Pro Magazine

The Editors' Best Awards selected DocAve Deployment Manager based upon its strategic importance to market, competitive advantages, and value to customers

Jersey City, NJ — November 22, 2011 — AvePoint, a proven leader in governance and infrastructure management solutions for Microsoft SharePoint, today announced that its solution for the automation of change management of SharePoint solutions, customizations, and Web-Front End elements, DocAve Deployment Manager, was named as a silver medal winner of the "2011 Editors' Best Awards" in the Deployment/Configuration category by Penton Media's Windows IT Pro magazine.

"In today's hyper-competitive business landscape, being able to effectively manage and automate release operations to promote content, customizations, and design elements throughout SharePoint environments is vital to a successful deployment," said Dr. Tianyi (TJ) Jiang, Co-Chief Executive Officer of AvePoint. "We're excited that our DocAve Deployment Manager solution has been selected by the editorial experts at Windows IT Pro for this prestigious honor. We work closely with our 8,000-plus customers worldwide to effectively manage, optimize, and protect their SharePoint environments, and being recognized as a winner reinforces our customers' testimonials as well as propels us to continue providing best-in-class SharePoint solutions that are both scalable and reliable."

"Our Editors' Best Awards let us leverage our contributing editors' expertise to provide well-earned recognition to products that exceed industry standards," said Jason Bovberg, senior editor, Windows IT Pro. "As we did last year, we've also added valuable, in-the-trenches insight from our reader community about the winning products. We're proud to now share this invaluable information with our Windows IT Pro and SQL Server Magazine communities. Our winners should be extremely proud of this recognition from our editorial experts."

DocAve Deployment Manager is one of more than 30 products available on the DocAve Software Platform, a comprehensive suite of products for SharePoint governance and infrastructure management that integrates AvePoint's powerful backup, administration, and data management technologies into a highly scalable, enterprise-class solution for SharePoint.
