

AvePoint[®] Opens Office in Greater Washington D.C.

New facilities will accelerate delivery of AvePoint's top-flight products and services to federal government agencies and other organizations seeking comprehensive and cost-effective SharePoint[®] infrastructure management solutions

Jersey City, NJ, December 1, 2008 — AvePoint, the leading provider of infrastructure management software solutions for Microsoft[®] SharePoint, today announced the opening of a new sales and technical support office in McLean, VA as part of a comprehensive strategy to deliver the highest quality service and support to its federal government, military, and corporate clients in the mid-Atlantic region. This strategic expansion aligns with the accelerating deployment of the DocAve Software Platform by prominent government agencies and area corporations and reflects AvePoint's ongoing commitment to deliver its award-winning products and top-flight technical services to organizations throughout the region.

"As government agencies and corporations in the beltway increasingly rely upon SharePoint, the demand for robust tools to manage, optimize, and protect these mission-critical deployments has accelerated", said Dr. Tianyi Jiang, Chief Operating Officer at AvePoint. "Our DocAve Software Platform has long been relied upon by organizations throughout greater D.C., and demand is rising steadily. Our new mid-Atlantic office and expanded professional team serves to reaffirm our dedication to delivering both top-flight value and best-in-class support to our clients and partners in the area."

New Office to Serve as Sales and Support Resource for Region's Customers and Partners

AvePoint's new McLean/D.C. office serves as the headquarters for a team of enterprise sales and technical support staff – all dedicated exclusively to serving regional clients and equipped with extensive experience working within the federal, defense, and corporate sector. Commensurate with AvePoint's commitment to build mutually beneficial professional relationships with complimentary vendors and professionals, the McLean/D.C. office also serves as the company's regional Partner & Certified Re-Seller Resource Center where affiliates can receive training, collaborate in joint marketing initiatives, and assist in the development of future products and offerings.
